

ESRA2 2019 Announcement & Social Media Posts: 2nd ESRA Symposium on Global Road Safety Performance Indicators, June 18, 2019

Announcement website and e-blast system

The partners organizing the E-Survey of Road Users' Attitudes (#ESRA2, <https://www.esranet.eu/en/>) will host the 2nd ESRA Symposium on Global Road Safety Performance Indicators. The symposium is sponsored by the Forum of European Road Safety Institutes (FERSI). New results from the ESRA2 data, collected at the end of 2018, will be showcased with presentations focusing on key results on global road safety performance indicators (i.e., release of 32 country fact sheets and thematic reports on speeding, mobile phone use and fatigue). This three-hour symposium will take place on June 18, 2019 from 9:30-12:30 at the Thon Hotel, Rue de la Loi 75, 1040 Brussels, Belgium. Participants can plan to also attend the 'REVIVE Conference: Identifying good practice in emergency response' organized by the European Transport Safety Council (ETSC) on the same day and at the same location, beginning at 13:30.

Three reasons to attend the ESRA2 Symposium:

- > Free of charge, privileged sharing of new ESRA2 results using the most recent data that provide an objective comparison of your country with other countries across the globe.
- > Meet with ESRA2 team members and leading researchers in road safety to network, ask questions and discuss results.
- > Stay abreast of timing for more ESRA2 related activities and releases. A sneak peek of more ESRA2 results to be released in 2019 will be provided.

Registration is free; available seats are limited!
